

2010 SLC Seminars

Thursday, April 8

3:45 PM

New Adviser Seminar

Julie Jensen, Aurora and Tennille Gifford, Wood River

Advisers with three or less years of experience, this workshop is for you! Don't miss this chance to discover everything you need to know about the SLC but were afraid to ask. Bring your questions!

4 PM

Leadership 101 — Keeping It Real

Patty Hendrickson, Keynote Speaker

Leadership isn't about elections, status and titles. Leadership 101 is being the best role model possible. This session will get you moving, cheering and wanting to do more to Keep It Real!

5 PM

Make Your Meetings Matter — Activities & Energizers to Liven Up Your Meetings

Patty Hendrickson, Keynote Speaker

This hands-on session gives the "why's" and the "how's" to get people involved. Whether your meeting is large or small, actively involving members will keep them coming back!

Friday, April 9

9 AM

Walk the Talk

Sue Lynn, Confluence Bookstore, Bistro and Business Center

Going green is nothing new to business and individuals. Attend this workshop and learn how one business owner accepted the challenge to Go Green!

10 AM

Leadership Strategies for the 21st Century

Karen Jennings, CBS Home Real Estate

Leadership in the 21st Century is critical for success in business. Learn strategies and qualities of effective leaders from a proven leader.

11 AM

Lessons of a Young Entrepreneur

Cory Becker, Becker Web Solutions

When you are young and in business, you have a lot to prove. Learn to overcome many of the challenges young entrepreneurs encounter and how to differentiate yourself in a global marketplace.

1 PM

A $15 Million Fundraiser

Danielle LeGrande, March of Dimes

FBLA-PBL consistently ranks in the top organizations for fundraising for the March of Dimes. You have helped contribute more than $15 million to this worthy cause. Come and find out what your local fundraising efforts are accomplishing on the local and national level.

2 PM

Been There, Done That

Jamie Dick and College Students

Move successfully into college life with these helpful ideas from current college students. Jamie Dick, former Nebraska FBLA President, will facilitate the session as you learn tips for being successful in your academic life, social life and more.

3 PM

How to Save a Life

Milton and Jan Bemis

It's more than a song made famous by The Fray. It's information you can use to make a life-saving decision today. The Bemis family suffered an unimaginable loss and made the decision to donate their young son's organs to make life better for another child. Come and hear their moving story!

